

Sunday 26 March 2017 (all sessions are subject to change)

7.30 - 8.00	Tai Chi for beginners with Linda Benson (at Gloucester High School)
8.00 - 8.30	Sustaining your spirit with Rev. Dr Jason John (at Gloucester High School)
8.15 - 8.45	Registration and networking
9.00 - 9.15	Convention welcome and Acknowledgement of Country Nell Schofield - MC
	Video message from Natalie Isaacs, CEO of 1 Million Women
9.15 - 9.55	Panel 1 - Sustainable Communities, Renewable Industries and Opportunities
	Mike Ramsden and Tom Nockolds	Lucie Bruvel	Shane Hannan	Bob Doyle
	Community Power Agency	Shepherds Ground	Hannan Build	Hemp International Australia - Dungog Hemp
10.00 -11.00	Workshops 1
	Bob Doyle	Megan Griffiths	Lucie Bruvel	Anne Lanyon	Dr John Van Der Kallen	Mike Ramsden and Tom Nockolds	Sharon Edgar-Jones	Penny Drake-Brockman	Jai Allison	Paula Morrow
	Industrial hemp growing opportunities	What happens to your rubbish - waste as a resource	Living your ideals, working as a collective and growing a community	Faith and ecology - what do they have to do with each other?	Climate change and health impacts	Exploring community solar for Gloucester	Reclaiming and embracing Aboriginal language and culture	Attracting birds to your garden	Building community resilience	Optimism and connectivity with progressive social movements
11.00 -11.20	Morning Tea
11.20 -11.50	Panel 2 Changemakers - creating the community we want to live in
		Dr Sandra Eady, Peter Low, Trish Rasmussen	Sam Marshall	Anna Burley
		Z-NET Uralla community energy team	Ethical Switch	Bucketts Way Neighbourhood Group
11.55 - 12.55	Workshops 2
	Shane Hannan	Z-NET Uralla team: Dr Sandra Eady, Peter Low, Trish Rasmussen	Kerrie Guppy	Sam Marshall	Karen Burge	Sandy Killick	Anna Burley	Joan McCarthy	Judy Simonson & Rachel Saunders
	Building with hemp and hemp applications	Community engagement pathways for energy matters	Reducing toxins in conservation and land management	Making an ethical switch	The potential of hemp for food, fibre and medicine	Grass roots voter education: how to influence the political process	A second look at our community, building the fence at the top of the cliff....	Sex is about energy	Art for all - the importance of arts and culture in rural communities
1.00 - 1.40	Lunch
1.45 - 3.00	Keynote addresses and interviews with Joanne McCarthy (2013 Gold Walkley Award Journalist) and Mayee Warren (International justice advocate) - Nell Schofield MC
3.00 - 4.00	Transitioning Ideas into Action
4.00 - 4.30	Closing address and afternoon tea									